Kelly,
We are suggesting that this note from Governor Musgrove&nbsp; accompany the upcoming President's Report from Mark Musick. The format will probably change a bit.
Editing?
Can you put it on the governor's letterhead? (I guess you can overnight
the completed letter.)

The 2004 SREB Annual Meeting will Be A First.
Plan Now To Be There

The 2004 SREB Annual Meeting will put you in a reserved seat at the opening session of America's largest, most comprehensive educational &quot;happening&quot; - - the SREB High Schools That work summer conference.
On July 6, 2004, more than 6,000 persons will convene in Atlanta for a meeting unlike any in which most SREB members have ever participated.
Scores, or hundreds, of educators from your state will be present. This is a meeting that must be experienced and is one, frankly, that SREB Board and Legislative Advisory Council members need to know about firsthand.
The SREB Annual Meeting will begin with a special opening session and an invitational dinner on July 6 that will give each Board and Legislative Advisory Council member the opportunity to meet with education leaders from your state who are involved in High Schools That work.
The SREB Annual Meeting will be at Atlanta's most-recognized hotel, the Peachtree Plaza. Mark July 6 (noon) - -&nbsp;  July 8 (3 p.m.) on your calendar. On July 7 and the morning of July 8 we promise a meeting that will put important information about schools and higher education before you. Mark July 6-8, 2004, on your calendar today.
